Guest Speaker

Heeding God's call to serve Him, Shawn Ellis has given up a successful career as a toxicologist and president of an environmental consulting company to serve as the Assistant Pastor at the Apple Creek Seventh-day Adventist Church in the Ontario Conference.

Shawn holds a Bachelors of Science specializing in Toxicology and a Masters of Science specializing in Occupational and Environmental Health.

Shawn also holds a Masters' in Pastoral Ministry from Andrews University in Michigan.

Shawn's spiritual journey began in 2006. Following his baptism, he made personal commitment to God to say "Yes" to whatever He asked of him. It began with Spiritual Gift workshops and continued with becoming a Bible Worker and a Lay Evangelist. However, God was calling him to more. When Shawn was accepted into studies for Pastoral Ministry, like the disciples in Luke 5, he abandoned his "fishing nets" of his consulting company of 20 years to follow his Saviour.

He knew that God wanted him to be a fisher of men. Shawn loves evangelism and is constantly looking for new ways to Share Christ with the world.

He has preached and done workshops all over Canada, parts of the US, the Caribbean and even in the United Kingdom. His presentation style incorporates multi media that helps him reach both the young and the young at heart for Jesus.

Shawn has been married to his wife Lian for the past 8 years and has three children Sophia, Shanice and Devon.

Currently, Shawn serves as chaplain for the Ontario Conference Adventurer Council. He and his wife Lian started the www.ConnecttoChrist.org online kids program to help children develop a close relation with Jesus in a fun and interactive way.

In order for this chemical reaction to occur, the proper combination of ingredients in the right proportions must be used for the desired outcome.)

2. Discuss with an adult the importance of reading God's Word every day. Write down your conclusions.
3. Find and read 2 Timothy 2:15, Psalm 119:11, and Psalm 119:105. Why do we study the Bible?

7. Regularly spend time reading your Bible.

Helps

1. Read the text slow enough for the children to write it down. Ask them questions to promote discussion.
 - a. Who do you think said it? Answer: Jesus said it. He was speaking to Satan.
 - b. What do you think it means? Answer: Satan was tempting Jesus, trying to get Him to eat. Jesus replied by letting him know that prayer and meditating on God's Word are just as essential to living as is food for our physical needs. Note: Read Matthew 4:1-4 to show the full meaning of the text.
2. It is important for us to read our Bibles every day in order to ensure our relationship with our Heavenly Father stays strong. Reading His Word and praying helps strengthen our bond and increases our chances of sharing Him with others.
3. Find additional verses.
4. Four Bible study habits:
 - a. Set aside time every morning or evening.
 - b. Start with a prayer before you begin your study. Ask the Holy Spirit to be with you as you read and to help you understand. "Scripture can only be understood thro' the same Spirit whereby it was given." —John Wesley
 - c. Be sure to pause during your reading. Think about what you have read and how you can apply it to your life and your journey with Christ.
 - d. Your reading should be closed with prayer asking God to help you remember the message and hold it in your heart.
5. Or read other Bible verses.
6. Use cardstock.
7. Encourage adults to model regular Bible study as a lifelong habit. The skills learned for this award could be taught every year.

Cupcakes and More

1. What does the Bible say about sharing?
2. Decorate six cupcakes.
3. Take pictures of the cupcakes after they are decorated.

5. Think of some people, other than family members, to share three of the cupcakes with.
6. Make a card with a Bible verse on it to give away with the cupcake.

Helps

Cupcakes can be made ahead at home or made at club meetings.

This would be a neat opportunity for families to “play” together.

2. They don't have to all be decorated at the same time. You could decorate two each week for three weeks. Check out cake decorating magazines and cookbooks for decorating ideas.
5. This is to be an outreach for your club. Discuss with your Adventurer ideas of who they can share their cupcake with.
6. Use a verse such as II Corinthians 9:7, John 3:16

Delightful Sabbath

1. Read Exodus 20:8-11, Isaiah 58:13-14, and Isaiah 66:22-23 and answer the following:

 - d. Start a Sabbath sermon sketchbook to record notes and small drawings for at least two sermons that you attend
 - e. Make a Sabbath door hanger to use as a reminder of Sabbath
 - f. Make a Sabbath/creation-themed mobile with colorful beads and nature items
4. Tell a friend some of your favorite things about Sabbath and show your Sabbath box to them.
5. Have a “Welcome Sabbath” get together on Friday night with some friends, Adventurer families, or your own family at home.

Helps

1. Read and discuss the concepts of Sabbath. God meant for the Sabbath to be a delight, something that gives great pleasure and enjoyment. Sabbath is a day for resting from our busy work week, spending time with our Creator/Redeemer, fellowshiping with believers at church, spending time in nature, and doing good.
2. Wrap box with items like stickers, wrapping paper, etc. Be creative. Have fun.
3. Be creative.
4. If your club is blessed with non-Seventh-day Adventist Adventurers this award can be a wonderful teaching tool to show the Adventurers and their families how special God intended the Sabbath to be. Take extra time to explain when the Sabbath was created and why God gave us the Sabbath. Remember the Sabbath was made for people and not people for the Sabbath (Mark 2:27). Tell a friend, family member, or the club.

5. Have a prayer of blessing for each child and light some candles. Invite everyone to share what they are thankful to God for in the past week. You could also serve a light meal with fresh fruit and use fancy glasses/cups with grape juice.

Helps

- 1 & 8. Help the children learn to verbalize their love for Jesus and to share that love with others. Pray simple prayers to show their love for Jesus.
2. Encourage the children to invite a non-SDA friend. Discuss how they can be a good example by sitting quietly in church, walking softly, singing, kneeling for prayer, being kind, etc.
3. Show the children how to prepare a simple talk or prayer. Keep it age appropriate, encouraging their own ideas.

Helps

1. Discuss the verse with the children and make sure they understand that the kingdom of heaven is both where God lives and the way they can show God’s love to others.
2. A parable is a simple story with a lesson. Jesus told simple stories so his followers could understand and remember the lessons he was teaching them. Give the children examples of lessons they might learn from parables: being kind to others, being a good neighbor, sharing God’s love.
3. Matthew 13:44 The kingdom of heaven is like a hidden treasure.
Mark 4:30-34 Faith is like a tiny seed.
Luke 10:25-37 Be a good neighbor.
4. Faith is like a tiny seed if planted it will grow (Mark 4:30-34). Give each child a seed and materials needed to plant the seed and include directions for care of the seed. Discuss how this small seed growing into a larger plant is like faith.
5. Review Mathew 13:44. Then have the children go geocaching or on a scavenger hunt. If you need help with geocaching, there are lots of beginning geocaching with kids sites on the internet.
6. If you need ideas for card ideas, you can find card template and card crafts online.
